

State of California • Environmental Protection Agency
Integrated Waste Management Board

CHINO VALLEY RECYCLING MARKET DEVELOPMENT ZONE

ZONE INFORMATION

Located in the County of San Bernardino, the Chino Valley Recycling Market Development Zone (RMDZ) includes the industrial-zoned areas of the cities of Chino and Chino Hills. The zone is bordered by the Counties of Riverside, Orange, and Los Angeles.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

California Recycling Market Development Zones are designated by the Integrated Waste Management Board. The Board offers low-interest loans up to $1 million, technical assistance on financing strategies, and assistance in marketing zones nationally and internationally. For more information on this program and other market development programs, contact the Board's Recycling Business Assistance Branch at (916) 255-1000.

CHINO VALLEY RECYCLING MARKET DEVELOPMENT ZONE

TARGET MATERIALS

The Chino Valley Zone has targeted these materials for feedstock: plastics, wood, organics/yard waste, textiles, paper, and metal.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Interstate 10 and State Highway 60 (Pomona) and 71 (Chino Valley) Freeways are the major east-west transportation venues that service the two cities. Interstate 15 and the 57 (Orange) Freeway are the major north-south transportation corridors. Rail service is provided by Southern Pacific. The industrial sewer line or "Brine Line" provides discharge facilities for industrial uses. A reclaimed water line is planned to serve the industrial area's need for landscape irrigation and some processing.

INCENTIVES

The Chino Valley zone offers comprehensive services to businesses that locate within its boundaries, including financial incentives; assistance with site selection; general business assistance; technical assistance; and a streamlined permitting process. Financial incentives for businesses locating in the zone are Industrial Development Bonds; rebates based on sales tax generated; manufacturing tax credits; employment tax credits; and reduced electricity costs.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Janet Coe
City of Chino City Manager's Office
13220 Central Avenue
Chino, CA 91710

(909) 627-7577 ext. 318
(909) 591-6829 (fax)